

PIANC GOALS	DESCRIPTION RecCom SIDE	ACTIONS	PARTNERS	TIMING
Promote the development and improvement of global waterborne transport infrastructure and enhancement of its economic, environmental and social benefits	Disseminate the culture and educate about economic, environmental and social aspects of the recreational navigation and its development	To remain informed on principal facts involving recreational navigation and on related governmental and other organisations activities.	PIANC National Sections Other organizations and associations Governments, Administrations were eligible Organisations and Bodies involved with recreational navigation	2010-2014
		To remain in contact with organisations and bodies involved with recreational navigation, and promote partnerships where useful and possible.
		To promote congresses, conferences, seminars on recreational navigation.
		Continuing in leading the correct "technical discipline" of recreational navigation infrastructure planning, design and construction fields.
Be pro-active in dealing with the impact of climate change	Ref. PIANC Climate Change Task Group documentation	RecCom will be present with a representative in the PIANC Climate Change Task Group, and this will report to RecCom the "work in progress" status.	PIANC Climate Change Task Group	2010
		To promote Climate Change Topic in every RecCom WG, where applicable.	RecCom WGs Chairmen	2010-2014
		To introduce Climate Change Topic and recreational navigation implications in every congress, conference seminar where eligible.	RecCom Members	2010-2014
Promote the concept of 'Working with Nature'	Ref. "Working with Nature" PIANC Position Paper The approach will be even more multidisciplinary and holistic in order to ensure the respect of all the existing conditions, especially in sensitive locations.	To promote partnership with Organisations and Bodies with significant expertise in "Sustainability".	Sustainable Planning and Design Organizations and Bodies (LEED, Green Building, etc.)	2010-2014
		To set-up a specific WG on Environmental Impact of Recreational Navigation Infrastructures.	EnviCom Environmental Experts	2010
		To ensure that all the WGs, both active and new, will have a specific approach under the "Working with Nature" point of view.	WGs Chairpersons	2010-2014
		To encourage the training of Marina Designer with regard to "Working with Nature" concept.	Experts and Professionals Organizations for Training and Licensing of Professionals	2010-2014

PIANC GOALS	DESCRIPTION RecCom SIDE	ACTIONS	PARTNERS	TIMING
Strengthen PIANC capabilities and enhance its visibility Achieve worldwide credibility and recognition of PIANC engineering, economic and environmental contributions to the development of sustainable waterborne transport infrastructure. Enhance PIANC internal and external relationships Disseminate PIANC expertise to the relevant decision-making bodies.	Continue to be the reference point for the technical field of planning, design and construction of infrastructures, facilities and services related to recreational, sport and leisure navigation	To cooperate in preparing an effective PIANC "Communication Plan", with particular reference to RecCom activities.	PIANC HQs Communication Experts	2010 - 2014
	Continue to be the leading partner for Governments and Private Authorities in planning, design, development and maintenance of marina, waterfronts and coastal areas	To divulge as more as possible the knowledge (reports, participation to congresses, conferences and seminars).	PIANC HQs RecCom Members RecCom WGs Chairperson and Members	2010 - 2014
	Increase the attractiveness of the Commission and its activities worldwide. The attractiveness of the Commission Activities is a driving factor to ensure the continuous interest and commitment of the Members, and the attendance to the meetings	To join the meetings activity with interesting technical visits (nautical districts, excellence marinas, etc.), important events (boat shows, congresses, etc.) etc.	PIANC National Sections Potential host Organizations and Bodies	2010 - 2014
		To identify topic of high interest for discussion and study.	RecCom
		To limit the costs for PIANC members for possible expensive activities.	PIANC National Sections RecCom Sponsors Potential host Organizations and Bodies
	To improve the Commission organization to well execute and to monitor its activities. RecCom Activities can be enhanced and improved if the Commission's organization is well structured and its activities are duly identified, audited and monitored.	To ensure appointment of members from the larger part of the National Sections.	PIANC HQ PIANC National Sections	2010 – 2014
		To establish Subcommittees and Responsibles.	RecCom Members
		To ensure the member participation to RecCom in proactive and effective way.	PIANC HQ National Sections
		To ensure the respect of schedules and timing.	RecCom Members
		To ensure the full-fulfillment of the Action Plan.	RecCom Members
Production of high quality technical reports, guidelines, articles and their distribution through oral presentation in public audiences and through PIANC website	To involve really experienced Specialists and Experts in the WGs.	PIANC National Sections Sister Organizations Professionals and Specialist Organizations	2010 – 2014
	To involve bodies with interest and high reputation in the field of Recreational Navigation.	Governmental Bodies Universities and Research Institutes
	To approve only reports and documents representing a practical and useful tool in the design.	RecCom Members PIANC ExCom

PIANC GOALS	DESCRIPTION RecCom SIDE	ACTIONS	PARTNERS	TIMING
Ensure the association's financial sustainability	Financial sustainability is considered as an essential tool to ensure the continuity of the Commission high quality activity and its promotion around the world	To activate services with fee charge for final users (e.g., Marina Excellence Design Award, Certification for Marina Designers, etc.).	Marina and Yacht Harbours Designers and Owners	2010 – 2014
		To encourage sponsorships for WGs activity where eligible.	Companies interested with WG subject Marina Builders Marina parts manufacturers and suppliers
		To encourage sponsorship for RecCom activities (with the same extents of PIANC Platinum Partners).	High profile firms and Companies involved with recreational navigation
		To find hosts and sponsors for RecCom meetings in different places than the HQ.	Governments and Public Authorities Marina and Yacht Harbours Managers and Operators
Expand PIANC number of members and National Sections	Recreational Navigation is registering a quickly increasing interest in many Countries of the world and in Countries in Transition. This interest can encounter and help the main goal of PIANC if RecCom can enlarge and strenght its activities	To establish the "PIANC Marina Designer Certification".	PIANC ExCom Organizations leading in the field of maritime publications, conferences, exhibitions, training, to promote the Certification (Seatrade, Cityscapes, Boatshows, etc.)	2010
		To review and restructure "PIANC Marina Excellence Award" in order to make the award worldwide recognized and a real important international event in marina field.	PIANC ExCom Sister Organizations Organizations leading in the field of maritime publications, conferences, exhibitions, training, to promote the Award (Seatrade, Cityscapes, Boatshows, etc.)	2010
		To establish and extent the relationships with Subjects active in the Recreational Navigation Community, preparing also MOU declaring agreements at different levels.	Organisations, Associations and Bodies involved with recreational navigation National Sections	2010-2014
Continue to be a members' driven association	Guarantee attractiveness, participation and involvement of PIANC members in RecCom activities	Organizing RecCom to ensure activities and decisions to be done by members.	PIANC HQ	2010 - 2014
		Ensure communication on RecCom activities.	PIANC Members PIANC National Sections
		Allow participation of observers and guests to the Commission meetings.

PIANC GOALS	DESCRIPTION RecCom SIDE	ACTIONS	PARTNERS	TIMING
Enhance the vitality of Qualifying Members and National Sections	To involve Qualifying Members and National Sections in recognition of recreational navigation matter, explaining the advantages in participating to PIANC's activities	To investigate the roles and interests of Qualifying Members in recreational navigation.	Qualifying Members RecCom Members PIANC HQ	2010 - 2014
		To get more information about the activity of National Sections in Recreational Navigation.	RecCom Members National Sections
		To prepare a data base, with the help of National Sections, of the members involved in recreational navigation and their activity.	RecCom Members National Sections
Continue to give special attention to Young Professionals and Countries in Transition.	Promote a sustainable development of recreational navigation in Countries in Transition (C.I.T.)	Promote participation of Representatives of C.I.T. to Seminars, Conferences and Congresses managed by PIANC and sister organisations on recreational navigation.	PIANC CoCom RecCom Members	2010 - 2014
	Promote interest and ensure continuous participation of YP in RecCom activities and WGs	Ensure the application of PIANC statements about YPs participation	PIANC HQ YPCoM
NOTE: Goals in 'bold' are in line with PIANC Strategic Plan Activities; the other goals correspond to the PIANC Strategic Plan internal and external goals				